RINGEL SHOW AT SUPPAN

„....At first glance, Franz Ringel's paintings cannot be described as beautiful in the conventional sense, but he is an artist without whom art history would be inconceivable. I would like to thank Martin Suppan for dedicating this comprehensive show to this artist, because it takes courage to....“, Klaus. A. Schröder said in his speech at the exhibition opening (translated)

Franz Ringel Dionysisch. Aus Leibeskräften

After solo exhibitions with works by Wolfgang Herzig and Robert Zeppel-Sperl, Franz Ringel is the third representative of the group Wirklichkeiten to be presented by Galerie Suppan Fine Arts in this show with exceptional works from the period between 1967 and 1999. A bilingual catalogue has been published to accompany the exhibition.

Ringel's works can be found in numerous Austrian and international museums and collections. The exceptional artist painted out of a real effort, out of the strength of his body. This dynamism is palpable in all of his works. The exhibition "Dionysian. Aus Leibeskräften" positions Ringel's entire oeuvre with regard to this dynamic,

The work, which is profoundly Austrian in its art-historical conditions and always current in its power, makes a representative appearance in this extensive show with, among other things, museum-quality, incomparable works.
